// Terms and Conditions

General regulations :

- Participants must adhere to the course guidelines, fee procedures, registration process, deliverables deadlines and instructions.

- By paying registration fees once, participants are allowed to have one seat in the course. Participants are required to register and pay registration fee for each additional seat. The amount of fees depends on the course.

- Participants can register for the courses as individuals from different countries, cities, or universities.

- The organiser has the right to change dates or other details to improve aspects of the course. In such an event, participants will be notified withing reasonable time frame.

- By registering for the course, participants fully accept all the rules, terms, and conditions of the educational program.

- By taking part in the courses, participants give the organiser non-exclusive rights to publish and distribute whole or parts of the material in any way, shape, or form and with associated communication as deemed fit and, on any platforms, including online platforms, social media channels and print publications.

- By taking part in this course and accepting the Rules and Regulations, participants declare to be authors of the uploaded materials. Moreover, participants declare that the submitted material comprises new and original works produced by them. The participants guarantee that the submitted materials do not infringe, in any way, the industrial and intellectual property right of third parties. Participants agree to indemnify and hold the organiser harmless from any cost or damage connected with the infringement of any third-party intellectual property right.

- The dates mentioned by the organisers for publication of the course outcomes are to be considered provisional. It is subject to change and dependent on the satisfactory completion of all the requirements of the course.

- Once a participant is registered, the organisers reserve the right to verify the identity of the individuals. Any special discounts may be applied only after verifying the identity of the participant.